“The exceeding of the voting rights thresholds is not due to the acquisition of shares by the Notifying Party, but rather due to the first-time attribution of voting rights from shares of a subsidiary of the Notifying Party (Section 34 (1) sentence 1 no. 1 WpHG) and from shares of third parties with which this subsidiary of the Notifying Party coordinates its behaviour in relation to the issuer (Section 34 (2) WpHG).

- b) The Notifying Party does currently not intend to acquire further voting rights within the next twelve months by acquisition or otherwise.
- c) The Notifying Party does currently not seek to exert any further influence on the composition of the issuer's administrative, management and supervisory bodies beyond the already existing scope of influence to the extent permitted by law.
- d) In its function as an indirect shareholder, the Notifying Party does currently not seek any significant change in the capital structure of the issuer, in particular with regard to the ratio of equity and debt financing and the dividend policy.

2) Origin of the funds used for the acquisition:

The acquisition of voting rights is not due to the Notifying Party acquiring shares in the issuer, but rather to the attribution of voting rights in accordance with Section 34 (1) sentence 1 no. 1, (2) WpHG. No equity or borrowed funds were used to finance the acquisition of voting rights.”
